WXXI Travel Club News

A beautiful fall day, wonderful company, cheese, wine, and expert opinions on both.

Recently several members of the WXXI Travel Club enjoyed a day with Holly Howell and residents from Valley Manor on a recent trip, "Between the Lakes Wine & Cheese Tour." A start at Muranda Farms for a cheese tasting, then on to Knapp Vineyards for a multi-course lunch with wines paired for each course. Finishing up the day, a presentation by Holly Howell at Sheldrake Point Vineyards. Holly was with us all day so was able to answer many, if not all, of our individual questions and in many cases make recommendations.

Of equal interest was the Club's October trip to Provence France, which ended up in Paris for several days. One of the areas visited was the town of Arles France, which is the home of Van Gough. The group stayed at the Hotel Jules Cesar. Following the days in Provence the group went on to see the sights in Paris. On most of these tours there are at least two members from the WXXI staff to make sure all goes as planned.

The next trip is an exclusive tour at Highclere Castle, location of the exterior and interior scenes of Downton Abbey. It is open to all volunteers and members of WXXI.

An information meeting will be held here at WXXI on January 16 at 5:30 pm. Please call (585) 258-0200 to reserve your seat!

Thank you For Your Help

Volunteers play such an important role here at WXXI. We've had some wonderful events in the past couple of months and we wanted to thank our volunteers for making them such a success!

The Dian Rehm luncheon in November brought in over 600 people. Thank you to the volunteers that helped with registration, the VIP Reception and helping people find seats!

Thank you to those that came in for our TV Pledge Drive in December, the WEOS Radio Drive, and for volunteering at the Little
